Their old gin has been moved to a convenient point in the southwestern part of town and everything thoroughly overhauled. They are better prepared than ever to gin your cotton, and respectfully solicit your patronage.

Hallettsville.

To The GAZETTE:

County court for the fall term begins to-day. County Attorney Blakeslee has set cases so that people who are interested as litigants, witnesses or otherwise need not lose so much time.

Extensive preparations have been made for celebrating in a becoming manner, "German Day" tomorrow, and if the weather continues good the largest number of people ever assembled in Halletts-ville is expected to be present.

Since the decline in price of cotton but little has been marketed.
Nearly every farmer who can do so is holding for better prices.

No new Texas raised corn is offered for sale, and much northern raised corn is being shipped to this place. Many farmers have to buy corn. This will put many a Texas dollar into the pockets of the Kansas farmers.

The populist county administration must have caused this dearth, for no such failure in the corn crop was ever before seen in Lavaca county.

Several parties from here attended the celebration in Shiner yesterday, and from them your reporter learns that a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Judge W. S. Robson of LaGrange is billed to speak here to-day in the interests of "free silver." Why not have said "democracy?" Because the pops say they too favor free silver.

Governor Culberson will on next Wednesday address at this place those voters of Lavaca county who desire to hear state issues discussed.
Culberson may not be the man every democrat wanted nominated, yet when we look at him and then at Jerome Kearby, not to support him in preference to the latter seems almost like committing the unpardonable sin. Culberson, with all the faults charged against him, is yet a man among men, while Kearby is a criminal lawyer and nothing more.

The people of the 18th senatorial district should remember that the senator who is elected in November will participate in the election of a United States Senator in January 1899 to succeed Roger Q.
Mills, and should therefore cast their votes accordingly. Dick Seydler may not be an angel, yet when compared with his two opponents he will not suffer by the comparison. Col. B. B. Allen, when whooping up things for McKinley and Hawley, should not forget Dick, the Lavaca county candidate. X.

Robbed.

Jos. Dvorak, our restaurant and bakery man, went to Flatonia last Wednesday on business, and stopped with Frank Shimek. When he retired for the night he laid his vest on a chair by the bed. It contained $98, several pieces of gold, a silver watch and other articles amounting altogether to about $150. During the night some one entered the room and carried off the vest and all it contained. A dog sleeping by the bed made no disturbance. Suspicion points to two negroes who had been working for Mr. Shimek. Such robberies have become very frequent in Fla-tonia of late.

An Open Letter.

To Mr. Schneider,
Supt. Shiner Oil Mill,
Dear Fred:

We wish you would notify your night engineer, Mr. Frank Pagel, not to blow that whistle so long in the morning. It spoils our morning naps. Yours sincerely, MAY SHERMAN GARDNER.
